Important Information

- The "Available Credit Limit" shown in this statement takes into account charges incurred but not due. Please ensure that at least the "Minimum Amount Due" reaches us by the "Due Date".
- If the minimum amount due or part amount less than the total amount due is paid, interest charges are applicable (including fresh purchases, if any) on an average daily reducing balance method.
- For charges related to your Credit Card, please click here
- The Credit Information Bureau India Ltd. (CIBIL) is an initiative of the Government of India and the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) to improve the functionality and stability of the Indian financial system. All banks and financial institutions participating in this initiative are required to share customer data with CIBIL. For more information on Credit Bureau, please click here.
- To know the Voluntary Codes as prescribed by the "The Banking Codes and Standards Board of India (BCSBI)" in any Indian language of your choice, please click here
- ♦ As you may be aware that trading in foreign exchange (including through electronic/internet trading portals) is prohibited under the Foreign Exchange Management Act (FEMA), 1999. Further, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has clarified many a time that remittance in any form towards overseas foreign exchange trading (including through electronic/internet trading portals or by use of credit/debit cards) is not permitted. RBI has cautioned the public not to remit or deposit money or utilize credit/debit cards for such unauthorised transactions. The advice has become necessary in the wake of many unauthorized transactions being conducted by residents that have been reported to RBI. Accordingly, please take note of the prohibitions on using your credit/debit card for such unauthorized transactions in contravention to the FEMA & regulations thereunder and that violation(s), if any, would attract penalties or as RBI or the Enforcement Directorate may initiate against such residents.
- In case of non-payment, our Customer Assistance Specialists, engaged through our authorized agencies may contact you. To view the complete list of our authorised agencies, please Click here
- Please note that as per extant RBI regulation, debit from NRO A/c towards settlement of International charges on International Credit Cards is now subject to below restrictions on repatriation of NRO A/c balances: A Non-Resident Indian (NRI) or a Person of Indian Origin (PIO) may remit an amount up to USD one million, per financial year, out of the balances held in his Non- Resident (Ordinary) Rupee (NRO) account, for all bona fide purposes, subject to payment of applicable taxes in India, if any. Further, any repatriation from NRO A/c is subject to payment of applicable taxes in India.
- ♦ Dear Customer please note our new 24*7 CitiPhone helpline number 1860 210 2484. We would further like to inform you that existing CitiPhone helpline numbers shall be discontinued effective 10th February 2017. To reach us from outside of India, you may call us on +91 22 4955 2484.

Protect yourself against SIM Swap.

What is SIM Swap?

- Fraudster collects victim's personal banking information
- Fraudster approaches victim's mobile operator with victim's fake identity proofs & obtains a duplicate SIM card
- Mobile operator deactivates the original SIM card post successful verification & issues a replacement SIM
- Fraudster generates the One Time Password (OTP) which comes on the new SIM & carries out account transactions without victim's knowledge

Tips to safeguard yourself against SIM Swap

- If your mobile stops working for unusual reasons, check with your mobile operator immediately
- Never disclose Internet banking password/ATM PIN/Telephone PIN to anyone
- Do not disclose your mobile number on social media platforms
- Register for both SMS as well as e-mail alerts to stay informed about transactions on your account
- Never respond to unknown mails or calls asking your account details and registered mobile number
